

August 7, 2012

We can't wait for our second Together We Can OA Retreat weekend, Sept. 7th-9th at the St. Francis Retreat House in Easton, PA (3918 Chipman Ave. 18045) Our committee is comprised of North Jersey and Central Jersey members, and have been hard at work this past year to create a weekend of recovery and fellowship opportunities.

Past retreats at Aldersgate and Long Beach Island have touched and changed the lives of many in a unique way and it is our pleasure to offer you the opportunity to journey to Easton in the Lehigh Valley. The program will focus on all 3 aspects of recovery and feature Step One; it's a time in your life to pause, to reflect, and to spiritually align yourself.

The Hospitality Committee has made coffee available from 4:00pm on Friday when registration opens and throughout the weekend. When you arrive, enter the front lobby without your luggage, register, and return to your car to park it in one of the lots. There are other entries closer to many of the bedrooms.

Registration 4:00 – 9:00pm We strongly recommend that first timers arrive before dark and assure you that the driving directions on page 4 will, if followed, get you to the retreat. After you receive your room assignment and settle in, you are on your own or can make plans with others for dinner out. Information on local restaurants on last page of this letter. The weekend begins with an ice breaker at 7:30pm Friday evening. Meals are provided starting with Fri. evenings' MA (9pm) and concludes with lunch on Sunday. We provide coffee and tea throughout the weekend. Canned/bottled soda and water will be available for purchase.

There is no appropriate telephone at the retreat house for you to call. Please do not call the retreat house. You can reach us, starting 10am Friday morning until 7pm, via cell phone (Sarita 732-233-5465) or Margaret (732-277-6762). After 7pm on Fri. you can call Bonnie (201-657-3916) or Carl (239-395-1770). Registration closes Fri. evening at 9:00pm. We will be waiting for you, so please call and leave a message if you are delayed. The doors are locked by 10:00pm and we will have to make arrangements to let you in if you are late. On Sat., either call Margaret or Sarita.

In order to provide a relaxed environment for all, we will be observing a phone and PDA free atmosphere from Fri. upon arrival until the retreat ends on Sun. at 1pm. We are asking all to agree to refrain from using any communication devices – voice or text- in the presence of others. We suggest if you must use your cell phone, that it be done either in your room or outdoors, away from others.

The items you will need to bring for the weekend are:

PLEASE BRING TWO 2 LITER SODAS FOR MEALTIMES

Coffee mug with lid

Extra pillows if needed (one is provided)

Bathrobe (this is a coed facility)

Towels (if you need more than one), soap, wash cloth, shampoo

Optional: outdoor chair/towel/blanket/bug spray (can be stored in closet in front lobby): depending upon the weather, some workshops may be held outside. The retreat house is situated on 22 acres.

Optional: small fan for bedroom (rooms are air conditioned)

Optional: cushion for chair in meeting room, yoga mat

Optional: sweater: the weather is sometimes cool at night

Optional: food items If it's not listed on the menu, it won't be there (i.e. salad dressings)

There is no refrigeration available for storage, if you bring a cooler there is ice available. No alcoholic beverages are permitted on the premises. We request that you refrain from using fragrances this weekend.

After August 7th, there will be no refunds. Assigned rooms cannot be changed or exchanged. We try to honor all requests in the order in which they are received and paid for; however, we have yet to make everyone happy.

On behalf of our committee, we would like to thank you for registering and look forward to meeting you at the retreat.

Dignity of Choice Sample Plans of Eating by OA, Inc. WSO

“OA is not a diet club, and we recommend no plan of eating in particular. We do, however, believe as a Fellowship that freedom from the obsession and compulsion to eat is at the heart of our recovery, and a plan of eating that helps us achieve a healthy body weight is an essential part of our recovery.”

The retreat committee takes no stand on nutrition. In formulating a menu for the NJ TWC Retreat, Basic Plan #1 has been used, along with the serving size suggestions to encourage food abstinence. The following menu items and amounts will be prepared for all those attending. Should your food plan include larger quantities, snacks or small meals in between meals, additional or specific items we are not offering, salad dressings other than oil and vinegar, etc., please bring what you need along.

If something you need is not listed above, please bring your own food items. The committee has worked closely with the Kitchen Dietician, so that the menu, modeled closely after the suggested Basic Food Plan #1 in our Dignity of Choice pamphlet, offers appropriate choices for most members. Food items have been chosen with care. We are all responsible for our own abstinence regarding quantity. Scales and measuring devices will be available.

Any questions you might have regarding food preparation or contents are to be directed to Lee Ann during the weekend, or a comm. member. Please take a few minutes and review the menu. Feel free to contact me before the retreat or Fri. eve. at the retreat. In order to serve warm food and over 100 people in a timely fashion, we ask that NO questions be directed to the staff. Please ask your food questions Fri. eve.

Any food or menu complaints can be communicated by putting a note in the suggestion box in the front lobby before you go home. Please share with us a solution/suggestion that would meet the needs of most members.

When bringing your own food, please provide a cooler for storage. Ice is available to use in your cooler. The ice machine is located on the lower level in the dishwashing room, a sign is posted. Refrigerator space is not available for personal food storage during the Retreat.
