

Happy holidays!

The Central Jersey Intergroup met virtually on December 10. We held elections for Region 7 reps. Robin B., Mike M. Lucille and myself will be representing Central Jersey at the region level. We also held elections for World Service Rep. Mikey J. will be representing Central Jersey at the world level. Congratulations to all!

The Freehold Thursday night meeting will be returning to an in person meeting on January 6 at 7:30 at the Hope Lutheran Church.

Of note: Zoom bombings are on the rise. Several OA groups including one in our Intergroup have reported interference by disruptive parties. Please see the attached flyer with helpful information on how to host a secure meeting.

We hope you will consider joining us at our January intergroup meeting, which will be held a week early on January 7 at 7 PM on Zoom. As always, all are welcome and service, no matter how small is appreciated. There is no abstinence requirement to participate in Intergroup.
