

Hello Friends,

Very happy to again report at this month's intergroup meeting we had a great turnout of 11 reps, and myself. We proceeded with business beginning at 7 PM this past Friday, November 14.

We still have an opening for a 3rd World Service delegate and no nominees at this time and will continue nominations and election next month. We also began nominations for 3 Region Reps. I am happy to report that Sue K has accepted one of the nominations and nominations will continue next month.

Please note all Thursday meetings will not meet on Thanksgiving Day but the Metuchen meetings are hosting a hybrid Thanksgiving Day meeting, flyer included.

Happy to report that CJI is hosting live events this Saturday in East Brunswick, IDEA Day and on December 12th in Jackson, Twelfth Step Within Day. The flyers are included and love to see you at both.

Also included is a link to our CJI website event page with additional event flyers and meeting information plus a link to the November WSO News Bulletin.

More exciting news, we are bringing back our newsletter, "Today" and will be issued quarterly. I will be sending more information and requests for contributions soon.

A reminder to all meetings to ask first time newcomers how did they find us, very important to know this in getting our message out and attracting new members.

Our next intergroup meeting is December 12, hope to see you all there.

Yours in Service and Recovery, Ross
